Fullcast Group

(Stock Code: 4848, First Section of Tokyo Stock Exchange)

4 affiliates of the Fullcast Group obtain ISO9001:2000 certificate at all business offices across the nation*

We are pleased to announce that four leading corporations of the Fullcast Group, a provider of total human resources outsourcing solutions (Group CEO: Takehito Hirano), which have an ISO9001:2000 certificate, obtained additional certificates covering all of their business offices across the nation upon examination by the certification body on May 31.

The four affiliates of the group which have obtained the certificates are as given below:

Fullcast Co., Ltd (Head office: Shibuya Ward, Tokyo; President: Takehito Hirano)

Fullcast Factory Co., Ltd. (Head office: Same as above; President: Takahiro Ishikawa)

Fullcast Technology Co., Ltd.(Head office: Same as above;, President: Shiro Kaizuka)

We have continued to exert efforts to boost the number of business bases compliant with ISO9001:2000 since we first registered in April 2004, thereby doing our best to improve the quality of services and business activities of the group as a whole and meet clients' needs in compliance with international standards. And we are determined to continue these efforts into the future. The number of branch offices has been constantly rising since we obtained the last ISO9001:2000 certificate in December, but in order to pursue the same high-level standards on a group-wide basis, and also from the standpoint of corporate governance under group management, we have all the business offices of the four companies obtain these certificates.
