Details of the corporate governance of Fullcast Holdings Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, our “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

Fullcast Group (hereinafter, our “Group”) considers the basic principles and aims of corporate governance to ensure transparent management for all concerned interested parties including shareholders, and to improve the efficiency of management in order to realize the “sustained improvement of corporate value.”

As of March 25, 2024, Fullcast Holdings Co., Ltd. is a company with a Board of Directors, which is comprised of 7 Directors, including 4 Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, and also a company with an Audit & Supervisory Committee, which is comprised of 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members.

To achieve the aforementioned basic principles and goals of corporate governance, it is our policy for the composition of the Board of Directors to consist of at least one-third outside directors and to report all outside directors as independent officers as stipulated by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. We have chosen outside directors to serve as 3 of our 7 Directors, and in so doing we aim to strengthen the supervisory function of overall business execution from an external perspective.

Regarding Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, by appointing all 3 as Outside Auditors (one of them being a fulltime Audit & Supervisory Committee Member), we perform effective and appropriate oversight of business execution by Directors, and have put in place a system that ensures objectivity and neutrality.

We believe that these systems allow our corporate governance to function properly.

[Reason for Non-Compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

Our Company implements all the principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosures Based on the Principle of the Corporate Governance Code]

Principle 1-4 [Cross-Shareholdings]

Our Group acquires and holds cross-shareholdings of publicly listed stocks when it is determined to contribute to the improved medium to long-term corporate value of our Group from the perspective of maintaining and strengthening cooperative business relations and maintaining and strengthening stable, long-term transactional relationships between our Group and its business partners, restricted to alliance relationships, transactional relationships or other business relationships. Our Company plans to sell and reduce shares of subsidiaries and associates and investment securities for which these business synergies are not expected to materialize.

In addition, every year our Company has examined the medium to long-term economic rationality and future outlook of main cross-shareholdings taking into account risks and returns, and reported the findings to our Board of Directors as necessary. However, beginning from the fiscal year ended December 2018, the Board of Directors has examined whether these holdings are needed or not. For the fiscal year ended December 2023, the Board of Directors carefully screened our Group's cross-shareholdings (5 stocks), including whether ownership is appropriate or not. As a result of this examination, it was determined that continuing to hold these cross-shareholdings is appropriate at the current point in time.

With regard to exercising the voting rights of cross-shareholdings, our Group determines whether it approves or disapproves a proposal and exercises its voting rights after comprehensively determining, based on individual scrutiny, whether the proposal contributes to the enhancement of the corporate value of the companies concerned and our Group and whether there is a possibility the proposal will damage shareholder value, for each individual proposal, taking into account the purpose of each individual holdings and referencing the criteria for exercising voting rights of the voting advisory company.

Principles 1-7 [Related Party Transactions]

Matters stipulated in laws and regulation and the scope of major shareholders and subsidiaries considered as stakeholders, the Company's Regulations of the Board of Directors stipulate that competitive transactions with a subsidiary of a Director and transactions involving a conflict of interest between a Director or major shareholder and subsidiary must be approved by the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors must be reported to with regard to transaction details when an approved transaction is executed or on a semiannual basis for transactions with blanket approval. In addition, the results of a survey on the existence of related party transactions are reported to the Board of Directors every year and disclosed appropriately pursuant to laws and regulations.

The development of these procedures and supervision of the Board of Directors ensures system is in place that does not damage the interests of our Company or its shareholders and that prevents such concerns from arising.

Supplementary Principle 2-4-1 [Ensuring Diversity in Promotion to Core Human Resources]

<View and Goals on Ensuring Diversity>

Our Group will promote diversity not tied to attributes such as gender, nationality, age, and work history, not only in core human resources, but also among its regular employees, temporary employees, and jobseekers via dispatching or placement through our Group.

As of December 31, 2023, the ratio of female employees, including regular and temporary employees working for our Group, was 61.5%, and we will maintain a minimum ratio of 50.0%.

The ratio of female managers at our Group was 14.1% as of December 31, 2023. We have set a goal of raising this indicator to 15.0% by December 31, 2025, and have strived to enhance recruitment, personnel systems, and training programs. We will make efforts to implement and increase this level going forward.

As we do not anticipate any differences in the promotion of foreign nationals and midcareer hires to management positions in terms of nationality or recruitment period, we have not set or disclosed goals for promotion to management positions at the current time.

<Policy on Human Resource Development and Development of Internal Environment>

For our Group to achieve sustained enhancement of corporate value, it is essential for new graduates and midcareer hires to become competitive quickly after joining, and we have a full menu of training programs with a focus on practical training for employees up to their third year. We implement a review of this menu of training programs each fiscal year, which includes increasing their precision and the opportunities offered, and gradually expanding the menu for each level of upper management. In addition, we are pursuing preparations to formulate a menu of training programs in an effort to establish programs aimed at increasing awareness of sustainability among officers and employees.

Supplementary Principle 3-1-3 [Initiatives, Others Regarding Sustainability]

<Initiatives Regarding Sustainability>

As described in Supplementary Principle 4-2-2, our Group's basic policy regarding sustainability is to contribute to solving sustainability issues and gaining the trust of all stakeholders involved in our business, and thereby realizing sustainable enhancement of corporate value. We will implement the following sustainability initiatives:

- Our Group will constantly offer employment opportunities to job seekers and a workforce to hiring companies by continually providing matching opportunities for short-term positions to job seekers and hiring companies. By doing so, we will contribute to job satisfaction for job seekers and economic growth for hiring companies. In particular, in Japan's labor market, which is experiencing a declining workforce, we will continually provide matching opportunities for short-term positions to both job seekers and hiring companies with a focus on young people, women, seniors, and foreign nationals as these are groups with room for labor force participation who can or want to work in short-term positions only, and through the growth of our Group, we will expand the opportunities both for job seekers and hiring companies.
- We will contribute to the realization of gender equality by providing employment opportunities to job seekers not tied to age, gender or other attributes. In particular, women account for 50.4% (fiscal year ended December 31, 2023) of dispatched workers in the Short-Term Operational Support Business, our Group's mainstay segment, and through the growth of our Group, we will contribute to the expansion of employment opportunities for female job seekers. We will also contribute to expanding employment opportunities for seniors through Fullcast Senior Works Co., Ltd., a subsidiary providing staffing services specializing in older workers.
- We will contribute to eliminating inequalities among people and countries by providing employment opportunities to job seekers throughout Japan not tied to nationality. In particular, we will contribute to expanding employment opportunities for foreign nationals through Fullcast Global Co., Ltd., a subsidiary providing staffing services specializing in foreign nationals with resident status in Japan, and Fullcast International Co., Ltd., a subsidiary providing staffing services specializing in foreign nationals with specified skilled worker status.
- In response to Japan's labor environment, which is experiencing a declining workforce, we will contribute to industrial growth and building infrastructure for technological innovation by satisfying workforce needs through the provision of staff matching services to companies seeking growth or innovation. In particular, in providing staff matching services or job opportunities, it is essential to improve the convenience and efficiency of the core systems used for human resource matching, and we will strive to make continuous improvements in this area to expand matching opportunities. In addition, there are increasing opportunities for digital transformation (DX), which we will actively implement.

<Investment in Human Capital and Intellectual Property>

With regard to investment in human capital, increasing the number of personnel is essential for our Group to achieve sustainable enhancement of corporate value, and we are making the necessary investments to enable us to continually recruit new graduates and midcareer hires, with an annual increase. Besides this, our Group will also increase the number of personnel by regularly providing the opportunity for our Group's temporary employees and staff dispatched and placed through our Group to become regular employees.

In addition, as described in Supplementary Principle 2-4-1, for our Group to achieve sustained enhancement of corporate value, it is essential for new graduates and midcareer hires to quickly become competitive after joining, and we have a full menu of training programs with a focus on practical training for employees up to their third year. We implement a review of this menu of training programs each fiscal year, which includes increasing their precision and the opportunities offered, and gradually expanding the menu for each level of upper management. In addition, we are pursuing preparations to formulate a menu of training programs in an effort to establish programs aimed at increasing awareness of sustainability among officers and employees.

With regard to investment in intellectual property, improving the convenience and efficiency of core systems related to human resource matching is essential for our Group to carry out its mainstay staffing service business. This will not only streamline internal operations, but will also contribute to improving the satisfaction of job seekers who are dispatched or placed through our Group and customer experience of client companies, thereby supporting the sustainable enhancement of our Group's corporate value. Therefore,, we will continue to invest in this area.

In addition, due to the speedup and sophistication of digital and IT technologies, as well as the proliferation of these technologies among job seekers and client companies, there are increasing opportunities for digital transformation (DX) in all the business processes of the staffing services industry, where digitization and use of IT has been slow to penetrate. Our Group will make the necessary investment to actively utilize these opportunities.

<Disclosure of Climate Change-Related Impacts>

Our Group's basic policy on sustainability is to contribute to solving social issues and to win the trust of all stakeholders involved in our business by achieving sustainable enhancement of corporate value with a corporate philosophy of "Providing the best place for people to bring out their best."

Our Group has identified climate-related risks, considering the impact of climate change issues caused by global warming on our businesses and finances. In addition to addressing these already identified risks from a risk management perspective, we also performed a scenario analysis of climate change-related risks and possibilities in accordance with the framework proposed by the TCFD (Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosure). In the future, we will continue to implement efforts to understand the climate change impact upon our Group's businesses, take necessary measures and enhance the disclosure of related information.

From the fiscal year ended December 2022, we have disclosed information on "Governance," "Strategy," "Risk Management," and "Indicators and Targets," as recommended by the TCFD. Please refer to "Integrated Report 2024" for our Group's climate-related information based on the TCFD framework.

As for decisions on other matters of business execution, company regulations have been created that clearly indicate approval authority in order to speed up the decision making process and achieve more in-depth deliberation at the Board of Directors. President, Representative Director and CEO, who serves as an executive director.

Our Company nominates Directors who are not Audit & Supervisory Committee Members as we believe them to be capable of playing a sufficient role in making decisions on important management matters and supervising the execution of duties by the President, Representative Director and CEO, who is an executive Director, in order to realize the management plan.

In addition, all of the Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members are independent outside directors, and we place an emphasis on their highly specialized knowledge and insight and experience in areas related to management which cannot be obtained solely from the Directors who are not Audit & Supervisory Committee Members. We expect all the Directors to fully demonstrate their abilities supported by their respective experience, to make decisions on important matters related to basic management policies, and to supervise the execution of business.

Supplementary Principle 4-11-3 [Analysis and Evaluation of the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a Whole, with Disclosure of Outline of Results]

From the fiscal year ended December 2016, our Company has conducted analysis and evaluation with regard to the effectiveness of our Company’s Board of Directors in order to enhance the effectiveness of the Board of Directors and further enhance corporate value. We conducted a similar survey of all Directors (including those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) in the fiscal year ended December 2022. The results of this survey were analyzed and evaluated.

Within the survey, Directors were asked to self-assess 26 items, including composition of the Board of Directors, management of the Board of Directors, structure underpinning the Board of Directors and a comprehensive evaluation for the fiscal year ended December 2023. The results showed the same evaluation in each item compared with the previous survey, which was at a high level, for each item, and that our Directors believe the effectiveness of our Company's Board of Directors continues to be ensured.

At the same time, there is still room for improvement from the perspective of further enhancing discussions at the Board of Directors meetings, such as the timing and method of providing materials to ensure that each Director has sufficient time to consider proposals. In addition, there is a need to further deepen discussions by the Board of Directors regarding the diversity of the Board of Directors, the election and dismissal of senior management, and succession plans for Representative Director.

Going forward, based on the results of the evaluation of effectiveness, our Company will aim to heighten the effectiveness of the Board of Directors and realize further enhancements in corporate value by making improvements with regard to the issues brought to light.

Supplementary Principle 4-14-2 [Training Policy for Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members]

Necessary training opportunities are provided, including short courses provided by external institutions, at the time of appointment and continually after appointment, so that Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members can obtain and update the knowledge and information needed to fulfill their roles and duties appropriately.

When new outside directors from different industries who are non-executive directors assume office, the President, Representative Director and CEO provides opportunities for them to acquire the knowledge and information concerning the market structure and business and service structure as it relates to our Company.

Principle 5-1 [Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

Our Group considers shareholders to be an important stakeholder and for this reason it encourages constructive dialogue with shareholders within a reasonable scope, even outside the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders, from the perspective of realizing sustainable growth and enhancing medium to long-term corporate value.

Additionally, our Company encourages discussions on important management policies and corporate governance, among other topics, with major shareholders who have an investment policy that particularly requires them to seek out medium to long-term returns.

Our Company's policy on establishing a system and making efforts to promote constructive dialogue with shareholders is outlined below.

- (1) General dialogue with shareholders, including meetings with investors, will be supervised by the President, Representative Director and CEO, while the General Manager of the Finance and IR Department will engage in dialogue with shareholders as the person responsible. Furthermore, the dedicated investor relations department will support these efforts.
- (2) Our Company's investor relations department will take the lead in gathering necessary information from dialogues

Supplementary Principle 5-2-1 [Basic Policy Regarding the Business Portfolio]

Basic Policy Regarding the Business Portfolio at the Fullcast Group

Our Group's business portfolio consists of the mainstay Short-Term Operational Support Business, which accounts for approximately 90% of consolidated net sales, and other 3 segments, which are the Sales Support Business, the Restaurant Business and the Security, Other Businesses segments.

Our Group believes that continuing to grow the mainstay Short-Term Operational Support Business will enable it to enhance our Group's corporate value, and our basic management strategy is to focus on growth of this business. In addition, with regards to M&A, our policy is to consider and implement M&A primarily in areas peripheral to the Short-Term Operational Support Business, targeting companies that will contribute to further growth and expansion in this business. On the "Restaurant Business," which has been newly added as a sub-segment, we believe that we will be able to quickly achieve the business performance which was before the COVID-19 pandemic, and by implementing various measures, we believe that we will be able to aim for appropriate growth thereafter. In the Sales Support Business and the Security, Other Businesses, our policy is to aim for stable growth.

Going forward, we plan to grow the mainstay Short-Term Operational Support Business without any significant changes to our basic management strategies, but we will conduct reviews of our business portfolio as necessary in order to optimize it.

[Action to Implement Management That is Conscious of Cost of Capital and Stock Price]

Our Group believes that the cost of capital is the cost of shareholders' equity, which is the rate of return expected from shareholders and investors, and that "increasing corporate value" means achieving ROE that exceeds the cost of shareholders' equity. Our basic management policy is a practice of management emphasizing capital efficiency, and we have set the maintenance of ROE at 20% or higher as a management indicator related to capital efficiency. Moreover, in order to maintain appropriate debt levels that will enable us to make necessary growth investments while maintaining financial soundness, we have adopted the policy of keeping the debt-to-equity ratio at no more than 1.0 time. We also maintain a policy of enhancing returns of profits to shareholders with a target of achieving total return ratio of 50%.

These policies are set as “Key Performance Indicators” in our “Medium-Term Management Plan 2024.”

Key Performance Indicators (KPI)

Indicators for achieving “sustained improvement of corporate value”: ROE of 20% or higher

Indicators related to “shareholder returns”: Total return ratio of 50%

Indicators supporting “basic capital policy” : D/E ratio upper limit 1.0 time

Our Group intends to continue to achieve the goal of "maintaining ROE of 20% or higher" by realizing increased sales and profits through the promotion of the Medium-Term Management Plan. As of the latest fiscal year ended on December 31, 2022, ROE was 30.6%, continuously maintained above 20%. In addition, the Group recognizes that its own cost of shareholders' equity as of the end of December 2022 is approximately 11%, and believes that it has achieved a ROE above of the cost of shareholders' equity.

Please refer to the following for the Group's “Medium-Term Management Plan 2024.”

make revisions to the detailed matters of share acquisition rights as part of stock options granted to our Company's Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) in order to improve business performance continually over the medium to long term and further enhance morale and the motivation to increase corporate value by having Directors share with shareholders not only the benefits of an increase in stock price, but also the risk of a decrease in stock price, which shall further solidify the linkage between our Company's performance and stock price.

Remuneration-type stock options use consolidated operating profit, which is the main financial target of the medium-term management plan, as an indicator of performance-linked remuneration. Policy for Determining Compensation Amounts and Calculation Methods	Yes

Disclosure of Policy for Determination of Compensation Amounts and Calculation Methods

It is stated in the Articles of Incorporation that officers' remunerations are stipulated based upon decisions made at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Our Company determines the amount of remuneration for officers once each year, which must be within the range of remuneration limits determined at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The limit on remuneration of Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) is set at 200 million yen per year and the limit of remuneration for Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members is 50 million yen per year based on the resolution at the 23rd Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on March 25, 2016 (number of eligible Directors at the time of the resolution: 3 Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members). In addition, at the 29th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on March 25, 2022, new share acquisition rights were issued as stock options to Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) within the scope of this maximum remuneration.

Remuneration-type stock options use consolidated operating profit, which is the main financial target of the medium-term management plan, as an indicator of performance-linked remuneration. Of those share acquisition rights allocated, only a limited number of share acquisition rights can be exercised depending on the level of achievement of the consolidated operating profit target for the fiscal year ending December 2024, the final year of the Medium-Term Management Plan. Since our Company has set a consolidated operating profit target for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024 as an indicator, there is no performance against our targets for the current fiscal year.

Furthermore, at the Board of Directors held on February 26, 2021, our Company resolved the "Policy for Determining the Details of Remuneration of Individual Directors." The organization with the authority to decide on the policy on determining the amount of remuneration of officers of our Company or the method of calculating such amount is the Board of Directors. Regarding remuneration of Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members), the President, Representative Director and CEO, who is an executive director, formulates a compensation plan including the total amount of remuneration, in accordance with the relevant policy, and after deliberations by the Remuneration Committee consisting of three independent outside Directors and the President, Representative Director and CEO, who is an executive director, the total amount of remuneration is resolved by the Board of Directors.

The specific details of the remuneration amounts of each Director shall be left to the President, Representative Director and CEO who is an executive director, and the content of the authority shall be the amount of base remuneration for each Director and the amount of performance-linked remuneration of each Director. The reason for delegating these powers is that when determining individual remuneration of Directors, the Remuneration Committee deliberates in accordance with the policy and reports to the Board of Directors, and those who have been delegated determine such matters by respecting the reports.

The Board of Directors has resolved to delegate the determination of individual remuneration of Directors pertaining to this fiscal year to Kazuki Sakamaki, President, Representative Director and CEO, and the Board of Directors has confirmed that the method of determining the content of remuneration and the content of the determined remuneration are consistent with the policy resolved by the Board of Directors for the individual remuneration of Directors pertaining to this fiscal year. It has also confirmed that the report from the Remuneration Committee is respected and judges that it is in line with the policy.

During the relevant fiscal year, deliberation and resolution were made by the Board of Directors as follows.

- March 24, 2023: Deliberation and resolution regarding remuneration of Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members)

The remuneration of Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members is determined through discussions among the Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members.

The details of “Policy for determining the details of remuneration of individual directors” are presented below.

1. Fundamental policy

The fundamental policy for the determination of remuneration of our Company’s individual Directors shall be to set this remuneration at an appropriate level based on the importance of each of their duties and their achievements using a remuneration system linked to our Company’s business performance and return to shareholders so that remuneration works sufficiently as an incentive to achieve sustainable enhancement of corporate value. Specifically, the remuneration of the President, Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director and the Director responsible for supervisory functions (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) shall be comprised of base remuneration (monetary remuneration) as the fixed remuneration and performance-linked remuneration (monetary remuneration) and stock-based compensation (non-monetary remuneration). The remuneration of outside directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members shall be comprised of only base pay as fixed remuneration in view of their duties.

2. Policy regarding the Amount of Remuneration for Each Individual in Terms of Base Remuneration (Monetary Remuneration) (Including the Policy on Determining the Timing or Conditions for the Granting of Remuneration)

The base remuneration of our Company’s Directors shall be comprised of monthly fixed remuneration, which shall be determined holistically while considering the level of other companies, our Company’s performance, and the level of employee pay with relation to the Director’s position, duties, and number of years in office.

3. Policy regarding the Details and Amount or Calculation Method of Performance-Linked Remuneration and Non-Monetary Remuneration (Including the Policy on Determining the Timing or Conditions for the Granting of Remuneration)

Performance-linked remuneration shall be comprised of cash remuneration reflecting key performance indicators (KPI) to elevate awareness about improving business performance each business year. The amount calculated is based on the level of achievement of targets for consolidated operating profit for each respective business year and shall be paid monthly in conjunction with monthly fixed remuneration. The target KPIs and their values, in principle, shall be set when formulating a plan that is consistent with the Medium-Term Management Plan or medium-term consolidated operating profit targets set by our Company, and will be reviewed as necessary based on changes in the operating environment.

Non-monetary compensation shall be comprised of remuneration-type stock options and adopt consolidated operating profit, a primary financial target of the Medium-Term Management Plan or medium-term consolidated operating profit targets set by our Company, as the indicator related to performance-linked remuneration. Of those share acquisition rights allocated, only a limited number of share acquisition rights can be exercised depending on the level of achievement of the consolidated operating profit target for the final year of the Medium-Term Management Plan or of medium-term consolidated operating profit target.

4. Policy regarding Determination of the Proportion of Monetary Remuneration, Performance-Linked Remuneration or Non-Monetary Remuneration for Each Director

The ratio of each type of remuneration for executive director and Director (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) shall be determined considering remuneration levels of other companies engaged in related business types or formats or whose business size is similar to our Company. Furthermore, the benchmark ratio of each type of remuneration shall be 8:1:1 representing base remuneration: performance-linked remuneration: non-monetary remuneration (in case the level of KPI achievement is 100%).

Note: Performance-linked remuneration shall be cash remuneration and non-monetary remuneration shall be remuneration-type stock options.

5. Matters regarding the Determination of Details of Remuneration for Individual Directors

The remuneration amount and each type of remuneration of the President, Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director and the Director (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) will be proposed by the President, Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director that will include the total amount of remuneration following the aforementioned fundamental policy on determining remuneration and individual policies. Next, the Board of Directors passes a resolution on the total amount of remuneration (each amount of base remuneration, performance-linked remuneration and stock-type remuneration, if applicable), timing, conditions and other important matters, if any. The specific details of each individual Director are entrusted to the discretion of the President, Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director. The details of this authority shall comprise the amount of base remuneration of each Director and performance-linked remuneration of each Director.

However, our Company will establish a Remuneration Committee comprised of 3 independent outside directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee members and the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director to prevent arbitrary decisions on remuneration by the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director and ensure that authority is exercised appropriately. The Remuneration Committee deliberates on whether the individual remuneration proposals established by the President, Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director are appropriate or not in accordance with the above mentioned policies for determination of remuneration. After this, revisions are made if necessary and the Remuneration Committee establishes a remuneration proposal within the scope of the total amount approved by the Board of Directors. The Remuneration Committee submits its proposal to the President, Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director, and the President, Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive director determines the remuneration amount for individual Directors while respecting the details of this proposal.

[Support System for Outside Directors (Outside Corporate Auditors)]

As a system to support the activities of outside directors (In our Company, this refers to Audit & Supervisory Committee Members. Hereinafter “Audit & Supervisory Committee Members”), our Company ensures that a sufficient system to support the activities of Audit & Supervisory Committee Members to conduct audits appropriately is in place, based on the assignment of support personnel in case Audit & Supervisory Committee Members deem them to be necessary, and our Company will bear the costs required for audits, and other related activities.
